tions the baymen's little war is over. Davis S. S. Tummis, late proprietor of the hotel, said the trouble of a tempest in a tonpot was that some of the baymen were excited by people who had political measres to serve, and became impressed more riess with the idea that the establishment of quarantine at Fire Island would ojure business. This is all bosh and they now know it is so, and practically admit it. The Normannia's passengers were all landed and will be made as comfortable as possible.

The sheriff Informed Governor Flower that there was no further use for the troops. It is expected the military will be that there was no lurture too.

It is expected the military will be withdrawn temorrow and that they will not go to Fire island. The Associated Press correspondent subsequently interviewed a number of leading men of all classes, resident baymen and the hotel than, and all join in saying that the views expressed by Tammes are undoubtedly correct in an the main particulars. One fact became evinent to the correspondent, and that was that to quarantine people on Fire island was a farce of the very worst description. At least a dozen boats came from the island to the main isnd and there landed loads of people, who, it seems from the island to the main isnd and there from their conversation generally and from the island to the main isnd and there from their conversation generally and from the island to the main isnd and there from their conversation generally and from the company. Ada County Democratic Convention Number as Strong Ticket-Politics in General-Masonic Grand Ledge in Semion.

Coren o' Annue, Ida., Sept. 13 .- [Special telegram to THE HERALD, |- Both judge and attorneys at the opening of court this morning were in a happier state of mind than could have been expected after the stormy session of yesterday. The twenty-one defendants arraigned on Friday on the second indictment were called upon to plead. Hawley interposed a motion to guard the indictment to dismiss and a demurrer and de-mand by each of the defendants for separ-

Then Juryman Berryman complained of being very sick, and to afford him proper medical attention the court adjourned for the day.

A FORTUNATE JUSTICE.

George A Pettibone, justice of the peace at Gem, who was arraigned on the second indictment was fortunate today, as the defense ascertained that his name did not appear on the indictment and moved his dismissal on the charge, which motion was granted. The prosecution have claimed a clear case against Pottiboue on this charge, and their carelesaness in omitting his name after the grand jury ordered a bill against him, chaggins them greatly.

General Carlin on yesterday issued an

WITHDRAWING ALL TROOPS from Shoshope county, except two companies, to be kept there until Nov. 1. It is understood that General Carilla is opposed to any troops remaining there, and states there is no necessity for it. Everything is quiet in this section. John M. Burke started for Shoshone county today to look after his mining in-terests, and personally after his political friends as well. He will start his active campaign in a few days. BOISE BRIEFS.
